PROCEEDINGS of the FEDERAL CONVENTION.

SECT. 10. NO State ſhall enter into any treaty, alliance, or confederation; grant letters of marque and repriſal; coin money; emit bills of credit; make any thing but gold and ſilver coin a tender in payment of debts; paſs any bill of attainder, ex poſt facto law, or law impairing the obligation of contracts, or grant any tittle of nobility.

No State ſhall, without the conſent of the Congreſs, lay any impoſts or duties on imports or exports, except what may be abſolutely neceſſary for executing its inſpection laws; and the net produce of all duties and impoſts, laid by any State on imports or exports, ſhall be for the uſe of the treaſury of the United States; and all ſuch laws ſhall be ſubject to the reviſion and controul of the Congreſs. No State ſhall, without the conſent of Congreſs, lay any duty of tonnage, keep troops, or ſhips of war in time of peace, enter into any agreement or compact with another State, or with a foreign power, or engage in war, unleſs actually invaded, or in ſuch eminent danger as will not admit of delay.

II.

Sect. 1. The executive power ſhall be veſted in a Preſident of the United States of America. He ſhall hold his office during the term of four years, and, together with the Vice-Preſident, choſen for the ſame term, be elected as follows:

Each State ſhall appoint, in ſuch manner as the legiſlature thereof may direct, a number of electors, equal to the whole number of ſenators and repreſentatives to which the State may be entitled in the Congreſs: But no ſenator or repreſentative, or perſon holding an office of truſt or profit under the United States, ſhall be appointed an elector.

The electors ſhall meet in their reſpective States, and vote by ballot for two perſons, of whom one at leaſt ſhall not be an inhabitant of the ſame State with themſelves. And they ſhall make a liſt of all the perſons voted for, and of the number of votes for each; which liſt they ſhall ſign and certify, and tranſmit ſealed to the ſeat of the government of the United States, directed to the Preſident of the Senate. The Preſident of the Senate ſhall, in the preſence of the Senate and Houſe of Repreſentatives, open all the certificates, and the votes ſhall then be counted. The perſon having the greateſt number of votes ſhall be the Preſident, if ſuch number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if there be more than one who have ſuch majority, and have an equal number of votes, then the Houſe of Repreſentatives ſhall immediately chuſe by ballot one of them for Preſident; and if no perſon have a majority, then from the five higheſt on the liſt the ſaid houſe ſhall in like manner chuſe the Preſident. But in chuſing the Preſident, the votes ſhall be taken by States, the repreſentation from each State having one vote; a quorum for this purpoſe ſhall conſiſt of a member or members from two-thirds of the States, and a majority of all the States ſhall be neceſſary to a choice. In every caſe, after the choice of the Preſident, the perſon having the greateſt number of votes of the electors ſhall be the Vice-Preſident. But if there ſhould remain two or more who have equal votes, the Senate ſhall chuſe from them by ballot the Vice-Preſident.

The Congreſs may determine the time of chuſing the electors, and the day on which they ſhall give their votes; which day ſhall be the ſame throughout the United States.

No perſon except a natural born citizen, or a citizen of the United States, at the time of the adoption of this conſtitution, ſhall be eligible to the office of Preſident; neither ſhall any perſon be eligible to that office who ſhall not have attained to the age of thirty-five years, and been fourteen years a reſident within the United States.

In caſe of the removal of the Preſident from office, or of his death, reſignation, or inability to diſcharge the powers and duties of the ſaid office, the ſame ſhall devolve on the Vice-Preſident, and the Congreſs may by law provide for the caſe of removal, death, reſignation or inability, both of the Preſident and Vice-Preſident, declaring what officer ſhall then act as Preſident, and ſuch officer ſhall act accordingly, until the diſability be removed, or a Preſident ſhall be elected.

The Preſident ſhall, at ſtated times, receive for his ſervices, a compenſation, which ſhall neither be increaſed nor diminiſhed during the period for which he ſhall have been elected, and he ſhall not receive within that period any other emolument from the United States, or any of them.

Before he enter on the execution of his office, he ſhall take the following oath or affirmation: "I do ſolemnly ſwear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of Preſident of the United States, and will to the beſt of my ability, preſerve, protect and defend the conſtitution of the United States."

Sect. 2. The Preſident ſhall be Commander in Chief of the army and navy of the United States, and of the militia of the ſeveral States, when called into the actual ſervice of the United States; he may require the opinion, in writing, of the principal officer in each of the executive departments, upon any ſubject relating to the duties of their reſpective offices, and he ſhall have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offences againſt the United States, except in caſes of impeachment.

He ſhall have power, by and with the advice and conſent of the Senate, to make treaties, provided two-thirds of the ſenators preſent concur; and he ſhall nominate, and by and with the advice and conſent of the Senate, ſhall appoint Ambaſſadors, other public Miniſters and Conſuls, Judges of the Supreme Court, and all other officers of the United States, whoſe appointments are not herein otherwiſe provided for, and which ſhall be eſtabliſhed by law. But the Congreſs may by law veſt the appointment of ſuch inferior officers, as they think proper in the Preſident alone, in the courts of law, or in the heads of departments.

The Preſident ſhall have power to fill up all vacancies that may happen during the receſs of the Senate, by granting commiſſions which ſhall expire at the end of their next ſeſſion.

Sect. 3. He ſhall from time to time give to the Congreſs information of the State of the Union, and recommend to their conſideration ſuch meaſures as he ſhall judge neceſſary and expedient; he may, on extraordinary occaſions, convene both houſes, or either of them, and in caſe of diſagreement between them, with reſpect to the time of adjournment, he may adjourn them to ſuch time as he ſhall think proper; he ſhall receive Ambaſſadors and other public Miniſters; he ſhall take care that the laws be faithfully executed, and ſhall commiſſion all the officers of the United States.

Sect. 4. The Preſident, Vice-Preſident and all civil officers of the United States, ſhall be removed from office on impeachment for, and conviction of, treaſon, bribery, or other high crimes and miſdemeanors.

III.

Sect. 1. The judicial power of the United States ſhall be veſted in one ſupreme court, and in ſuch inferior courts as the Congreſs may from time to time ordain and eſtabliſh. The Judges, both of the ſupreme and inferior courts, ſhall hold their offices during good behaviour, and ſhall, at ſtated times, receive for their ſervices a compenſation, which ſhall not be diminiſhed during their continuance in office.

Sect. 2. The judicial power ſhall extend to all caſes, in law and equity, ariſing under this conſtitution, the laws of the United States, and treaties made, or which ſhall be made, under their authority; to all caſes affecting Ambaſſadors, other public Miniſters and Conſuls; to all caſes of admiralty and maritime juriſdiction; to controverſies to which the United States ſhall be a party; to controverſies between two or more States, between a State and citizens of another State, between citizens of different States, between citizens of the ſame State claiming lands under grants of different States, and between a State, or the citizens thereof, and foreign ſtates, citizens or ſubjects.

In all caſes affecting Ambaſſadors, other public Miniſters and Conſuls, and thoſe in which a State ſhall be party, the ſupreme court ſhall have original juriſdiction. In all the other caſes before mentioned, the ſupreme court ſhall have appellate juriſdiction both as to law and fact, with ſuch exceptions, and under ſuch regulations as the Congreſs ſhall make.

The trial of all crimes, except in caſes of impeachment, ſhall be by jury; and ſuch trial ſhall be held in the State where the ſaid crimes ſhall have been committed; but when not committed within any State, the trial ſhall be at ſuch place or places as the Congreſs may by law have directed.

Sect. 3. Treaſon againſt the United States, ſhall conſiſt only in levying war againſt them, or in adhering to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No perſon ſhall be convicted of treaſon unleſs on the teſtimony of two witneſſes to the ſame overt act, or on confeſſion in open court.

The Congreſs ſhall have power to declare the puniſhment of treaſon, but no attainder of treaſon ſhall work corruption of blood, or forfeiture, except during the life of the perſon attainted.

IV.

Sect. 1. Full faith and credit ſhall be given in each State to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of every other State. And the Congreſs may by general laws preſcribe the manner in which ſuch acts, records and proceedings ſhall be proved, and the effect thereof.

Sect. 2. The citizens of each State ſhall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of citizens in the ſeveral States.

A perſon charged in any State with treaſon, felony, or other crime, who ſhall flee from juſtice, and be found in another State, ſhall, on demand of the executive authority of the State from which he fled, be delivered up, to be removed to the State having juriſdiction of the crime.

No perſon held to ſervice or labor in one State, under the laws thereof, eſcaping into another, ſhall in conſequence of any law or regulation therein, be diſcharged from ſuch ſervice or labor, but ſhall be delivered up on claim of the party to whom ſuch ſervice or labor may be due.

THIRTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away on Monday night, the 24th ult. from the Potomack Company, the three following Irish servant men, viz. CORNELIUS COLEMAN, 25 years of age, 5 feet 6½ inches high, slim made, smooth thin face, black hair, light gray eyes, round shouldered, and is a little lame; he has been in the country before, says he served his time in Berkeley County, and knows the country well, having served part of his servitude in Kentuckey.——JOHN RIELY, 31 years of age, 5 feet 4¼ inches high, well made, a little pock marked, black hair, blue gray eyes, simple countenance, has been in the country before, and says he served his time in Montgomery County; he has been in the American and English service for nine or ten years, and probably may produce discharges or a pass as he knows the country well.—The above two had on when they went away, white fearnought jackets, osnaburg shirts and trousers, country made shoes nailed in the heels and holes punched in the vamps.——PATRICK CARNEY, 25 years of age, 5 feet 4½ inches high, well made, good face, slightly pitted with the small-pox, a little freckled, long yellowish hair tied behind, gray eyes, is a flax dresser by trade, has been in the English service in America for five or six years, and can produce his discharge; he is likewise a free-mason and has his credentials with him: He had on when he went away, a gray surtout coat with mohair buttons, a gray outside jacket, osnaburg shirt and trousers, country made shoes nailed in the heels and holes punched in the vamps.—They are suspected to have stolen the following clothes, viz. A scarlet waistcoat, a pair of striped linen trousers, and a bird-eye velvet waistcoat.—Whoever takes up the said servants and secures them so that they are got again, shall have if taken five miles from home FIVE DOLLARS for each, and if taken at a greater distance TEN DOLLARS for each, or the above reward for the whole and reasonable charges paid if brought home.

Rich and Cheap Lands for Sale,

In the Vicinity of the Potomack.

To be SOLD,

BETWEEN Four and Five Hundred Acres of VERY RICH LAND, pleasantly and advantageously situated in Berkeley County, in the State of Virginia, 10 Miles from Shepherd's-Town, and 8 from Martinsburg.——This Tract is a Part of the valuable Plantation of the late General LEE, which hath been admired, by the best Judges, for the extraordinary Luxuriance of its Soil.—An indisputable Title will be given to the Purchaser, with immediate Possession.—Application for terms, which will be very reasonable, may be made to Mr. JAMES ALCOCK, Conveyancer and Broker, in Baltimore-Town.

Baltimore, Sept. 18, 1787.

N. B. The Business of opening and extending the Navigation of the great River Potomack goes on with Rapidity and Success.

To be Rented,

By the Year or longer Term,

THE noted House, wherein I formerly lived and kept tavern, and lately occupied by Mrs. Bray; or the house in which I now live.—The Situations are so generally known as render particular descriptions unnecessary.

WILLIAM WARD.

Alexandria, Sept. 27, 1787.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD,

WILL be given by the Subscriber for apprehending and securing in any gaol of the United States, an indented servant lad, named JOSEPH GHELSEMINO; he is by appearance about 16 years of age, 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, has light hair, fair complexion, grey eyes, comely and open countenance, more than commonly ingenious, having a great turn for music and any kind of mechanical work; he has been brought up as an attendant in the house, speaks remarkable good English, though born in Ireland: He had on and took with him when he went away, a short fustian coat which he usually wore, a cloth coloured coat, a blue surtout, and a white beavered hat.—He also carried off a violin and a handsome German flute tipped and mounted with ivory, with two spare middle joints.—Said lad has a scar under the right jaw near the ear, somewhat resembling the King's evil.—He absconded the 6th instant, in company with two other lads and are all supposed to be inclined to get on board some ship, for which reason any one who conceals, harbors, or is accessary to his escape may depend on being dealt with as rigorously as the law will allow, by
